

Packages From Home Privacy & Security Policy

Privacy Policy

Packages From Home has strict internal privacy policies and will never sell, rent, or otherwise release information about our supporters, donors, volunteers, or the military servicemembers our programs benefit to anyone without your explicit permission. We value and protect your personal information, and will only contact you upon your request or in your benefit. If you would prefer not to receive notices or communication from Packages From Home, please unsubscribe from our automated emails and/or send your request to info@packagesfromhome.org.

Security Procedures

This website has physical and electronic security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of your information under our control. The security measures used on this site include, but are not limited to, industry-standard Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology, firewalls, and internal policies to maintain the security of stored data. While we follow generally-accepted industry standards to protect the personal information you provide to us, no method of data transmission over the Internet or electronic storage is completely secure. Please note that while we strive to use commercially-acceptable methods to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

Links

Packages From Home's website contains links to external websites belonging to alliance partners, clients, and other sites of interest to our users. Packages From Home does not control the privacy practices of these other sites. Should you visit these links and leave our website, we recommend for your protection that you also review the external site's privacy policy.

Privacy Complaints

If you believe that Packages From Home has not complied with the provisions of this privacy policy, please email your complaint to info@packagesfromhome.org.
